PROVIDENT FUND (NOMINATIONS) REGULATIONS 1984

LN 14/85

PROVIDENT FUND ORDINANCE 1984 (CAP. 86)

Commencement [Date]

1 Citation and interpretation

- (1) These Regulations may be cited as the Provident Fund (Nominations) Regulations 1984.
- (2) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires —
“person of standing” means a person of standing in the community authorised to witness signatures on important documents; and
“portion” means the portion of death benefit indicated by a member to be payable to each person nominated under section 25(1)

2 Nomination of beneficiaries

For the purposes of section 25 a member may nominate a person or persons to receive the amount of death benefit or portion thereof payable upon his death by executing a memorandum in the form prescribed in the Schedule to these Regulations.

3 Execution of the memorandum

The memorandum executed under regulation 2 shall be accepted as valid only if —

- (a) it is completed to indicate the portion to be paid to each nominated person;
- (b) it is signed by the member in the presence of a person of standing who shall witness the signature; and
- (c) the person witnessing the member's signature is not a person nominated by the member concerned

4 Members not wishing to nominate beneficiaries

A member who does not wish to nominate any person or persons to be a beneficiary under section 25 shall be required to make a declaration to that effect on the form prescribed in the Schedule to these Regulations.

5 Submission of memoranda

After execution of the memorandum under regulation 3 or 4 a member shall submit it forthwith to the Fund
