SHIPPING (RATIONS) REGULATIONS

LN 2/61

LAGOON SHIPPING ORDINANCE

Commencement [Date]

1. These regulations may be cited as the Shipping (Rations) Regulations.
2. In these regulations unless the context otherwise requires —
“Master” shall mean the person for the time being in charge of any vessel;
“Class C” or “Class D” shall mean a vessel of that class as defined in the Shipping Regulations.
3. There shall be supplied to each and every seaman and passenger aboard any vessel of Class C or Class D rations in accordance with the minimum scales contained in Schedules A and B respectively.
4. The Master and owner of any vessel whereon any seaman or passenger is not supplied with rations as required by the preceding regulation shall commit an offence.
5. Nothing contained in the 2 preceding regulations shall apply to the failure to supply such rations to any passenger —
  - (i) during the first 24 hours he is on board any vessel for the purpose of undertaking any journey reasonably expected to be of less than 24 hours duration; or
  - (ii) where there exists between such passenger and the owner or Master of any vessel a contract pursuant to the terms of which rations of a standard higher than that laid down in Schedule B are supplied.
